NOTES.

The Royal Burgh of Ayr, the capital of Ayrshire, is situated at the mouth of the River Ayr. The town and county receive their name from the River Ayr, a name which is probably a survival from the old times of the Strathclyde Britons, signifying in Cymric, "the gentle water," or Ar in Gaelic, which signifies "a battlefield." Distant about 30 miles S. S.W. from Glasgow, and by rail 74 miles S.-W. from Edinburgh. The spot has been inhabitated from a remote antiquity. It was the site of a Roman Station, and it has been ascertained that a hamlet remained here until the year 1197, when William the Lion engrafted a new town upon it, which about the year 1202 he constituted a royal burgh.

In ancient times Ayr was distinguished both for trade and military strength; and being an important point of concentration on the west, it was the scene of frequent conflicts, and repeatedly changed hands during the wars of Scottish independence, in the time of the Edwards and the Bruces. Here Edward I. fixed a powerful garrison, and here the patriotic exploits of Sir William Wallace commenced.

When Scotland was over-run by Oliver Cromwell, he fixed upon it as the site of one of the four forts which he built to command the country. This fortification, termed the Citadel, enclosed an area of about ten or twelve acres, including the Church of St. John. The Tower (which only remains) is a venerable relic founded in the twelfth century, and dedicated to St. John the Baptist. In 1560 it fell into the hands of the reformed clergy, of whom was the Rev. John Welsh, son-in-law of John Knox, the Reformer. The Scottish Parliament met here and confirmed the title of Robert the Bruce to the throne. When the Protector, in 1652, took possession of it, turning the Church into a storehouse, he indemnified the inhabitants for the seizure by contributing 1000 merkes sterlinge money towards the erection of the present Old Church, on the site of a former Franciscan monastery. The Citadel was purchased in 1853 by Mr John Miller. It has now been secured by the Marquis of Bute, who has had it cleared of the modern buildings built to it by "Baron" Miller and is restoring it to its original appearance.

Wallace Tower.—A Gothic structure 113 feet high, erected on the site of a former one which was taken down about 1830. It was designed by Thomas Hamilton, and cost about £1,400. It has always been associated with the name of Sir William Wallace. A statue of the renowned chief, cut by Thom, the famed sculptor of "Tam o' Shanter and Souter Johnnie," occupies a niche in front The cost of the statue was 120 guineas, and the money was subscribed in a fortnight, chiefly through the exertions of Mr Auld, Doonbrae, Thom's chief patron. A figure of less pretensions, cut by Mr Reid of Glasgow, stands in a niche of the Scotch baronial building at the east end of Newmarket Street, placed in 1810 by Henry Cowan, to replace an old representation of the head of Wallace, which had fallen into decay. The effigy was originally erected there to commemorate the sheltring of Wallace from his enemies under this roof.

The reputed date of the building of the Auld Brig is 1232, and the early documentary record is a charter of Alexander II., dated 7th December, 1236. Traditionally it was built by Isobel Lowe and her sister, two maiden ladies, who spent their fortune on the undertaking. In 1877 the heavy floods undermined the foundations of the New Brig, referred to by Burns, and the present New Bridge was built on the same site. Victoria Bridge, erected in 1897. Burns Statue, unveiled 1891. Royal Scots Fusiliers Memorial Statue, unveiled 1902. Burns Monument built 1820. The Town's Buildings, with a spire 226 feet high, erected in 1828, cost £14,000, and greatly enlarged in 1881. Town Hall destroyed by fire on 1st July, 1897, rebuilt 1904. The County Buildings, modelled after the Temple of Isis in Rome, completed in 1822, costing upwards of £30,000. The Ayr Academy was founded chiefly on a bequest of £1000 left for educational purposes in 1790 by Mr Fergusson of Doonholm. This sum was supplemented by private subscriptions of £6585. The cost of erection was £2837; and the balance of the fund was vested in Government securities. A charter was obtained in 1798, under which the management was committed to seven directors annually chosen from among the Magistrates and Town Council. Since 1872 the Academy has come under the Education Act, and is now managed by the School Board. In 1911-12 additional improvements were made on the Academy buildings at the cost of over £20,000

Newton-upon-Ayr is of very ancient creation, owing its privileges to Robert Bruce, who, upon being attacked by leprosy, came to reside in it, and was induced to establish a lazar-house to confer considerable favours on the town. Newton and Wallacetown were comprehended within the Parliamentary Burgh of Ayr in 1832. The Municipal Burgh was in 1873 rendered conterminous with the Parliamentary, and again extended in 1885. Its present area is about 1996 acres.

No notes on Ayr, however brief, would be complete without some reference to the places so intimately connected with the birth and life of the National Poet. Ayr is the very heart of the Burns country. At Alloway (2½ miles) is the birthplace, and close around it are "Alloway's Auld Haunted Kirk," "Tam o' Shanter's Brig," and many other associations with Burns and his poems. At Burns' Cottage is the Museum of Relics. Burns' Monument should also be visited, nor should the Banks o' Doon Tea Gardens be omitted, affording access to the far-famed banks and braes, and showing much to justify its claim to be the beauty spot of the far-famed Land of Burns.
